Volume 16 No 7

October, 2015

The Century Ride held on Sunday October 19th was a HUGE success!! There were over 600 riders this year and the rest stop at Arnold Station sponsored by APC was busy.

Thank you to APC members Diane & Richard Ensor, Ann Fligsten, Teresa Miller, Sue Ricciardi, Edie Segree and Eric Stravitz (Bike AAA) for coming out early on Sunday to man the rest stop, and among other tasks pour water, cut bananas & bagels and cheer the riders on.

Membership Report

Sue Ricciardi

We did not have any new members in October. The APC Board of Directors has voted to keep the membership dues the same for 2016, only $25. Membership forms for 2016 will be mailed in early December with an option to pay with PayPal. We are trying something new, hopefully to improve our reach in the community.

Announcements –

The Arnold community officially welcomed Green Valley Marketplace on Monday, October 26. The family-owned marketplace has established a vibrant, mutually beneficial relationship with the community. Shoppers have already had the chance to walk through the aisles of the new store and admire the extensive selection of fresh produce, the mouthwatering goods in the bakery, the hearty options in the deli and much more. For more information, visit www.greenvalleymarketplace.com.

Broadneck Council of Communities will host a meeting on November 12th at 7:30 p.m. at the Cape St. Claire Improvement Association Clubhouse located at 1223 River Bay Road (at the end of Cape St. Claire Road and one block to the right across the street from the waterfront).

A presentation on the Severn River Bridge project will be given, and SHA Representative, Hillary Gonzales, will give an update on SHA projects in District 5.

Ryland Homes, who is building Admiral's Ridge off of Route 2 recently was sold. Cal Atlantic Homes based out of Columbia, MD is the new owner. APC will keep following and report any developments or progress regarding this project

The Board of Directors voted to keep the meeting dates (2nd Monday of each month), location (Asbury United Methodist Church Fellowship Hall) and times (7:30 p.m.) the same in 2016 – please mark your calendars now for:
